

SUZUKI MUSIC ASSOCIATION OF CALIFORNIA

SMAC Participant Code of Conduct for Video Conferencing Events

By participating in this video event, you are agreeing to maintain a high standard of personal conduct required of all participants and their families. This means you commit to respect others involved in this event series and respect the property and equipment you will be using. Any of the following actions during the event sessions could result in you being asked to disconnect and not to participate further, without refund of any tuition and fees paid if any:

- Unruly behavior
- Cyberbullying
- Harassment of any kind
- Derogatory comments or gestures made to any participants, faculty or staff
- Use of alcohol, marijuana, illegal drugs